Legislation on Farm Debts Is Declared Need

problem in Manitoba as they have in Alberta," Mr. St. Laurent said. "We should be careful not to disturb a situation which is not so bad as it stands in comparison with that of boom years."

He commended the wisdom of the 1942 conference's action in drafting a proposed bill for bankruptcy legislation to provide for the need when it should arise. He agreed with the decision of the Privy Council that debt adjustment was properly under the jurisdiction of the federal government.

SASKATCHEWAN SITUATION
Describing the Saskatchewan situation, Mr. St. Laurent said that his government had given particular attention to the number of court actions since the Saskatchewan debt adjustment act had been declared invalid in 1942.

"There has been no increase in foreclosures," Mr. St. Laurent told the conference. "If anything, there has been an improvement in the situation. The figures were: 1940, 73; 1941, 60; 1942, 74."

Mr. St. Laurent said that the field of bankruptcy and insolvency legislation was given particular attention to the number of court actions since the Saskatchewan debt adjustment act had been declared invalid in 1942.

"The decision of the Privy Council on the appeal from the Supreme Court decision on the Alberta debt adjustment act was upheld. It was not within the power of the province to delegate to a non-judicial body civil authority."

"Figures on the number of foreclosures are misleading," contended Tom Johnston, M.L.A., Govan, Sask. "As foreclosures increase, the number of foreclosures increases. Many farmers voluntarily give up the equity in the land and property."

ACTION NEEDED
He said it was necessary to do something about the situation. Many farms were being foreclosed upon. Many farmers were unable to pay their debts. It was an inordinate burden of debt.

"It is a problem of rehabilitation," said Mr. Johnston. He believed that the solution of the present problem was to rehabilitate the farmers in the post-war period.

Mr. St. Laurent said that the figures on the relinquishment of titles transfer gave a true picture of the situation. He said that the figures on the relinquishment of titles transfer gave a true picture of the situation.

He gave figures on the discharge of mortgages in Manitoba as follows: 1939, 7,509; 1940, 7,369; 1941, 6,729; 1942, 5,422.

Mr. St. Laurent spent time explaining to the delegates the nature of the legislation which the committee set up by the 1942 conference had proposed to the federal government.

Mr. Carson reported on the activities of the committee which had been appointed by the 1942 conference to deal with the federal government and act as a liaison between the committee and the federal government.

The committee had proposed a reasonable amount of compensation for the loss of property and the loss of income. It had also proposed a reasonable amount of compensation for the loss of property and the loss of income.

Senate Nullifies Plan to Deduct Farm Benefits

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—With support of administration leaders, the Senate passed today legislation nullifying that portion of President Roosevelt's stabilization order which requires deduction of government benefit payments in establishing farm price ceilings.

Only Senators Peter Gerry (Dem.-R.I.) opposed the measure. Gerry (Dem.-R.I.) opposed the measure. Gerry (Dem.-R.I.) opposed the measure.

Flying Forts Attack U.S. Raid on Germany May Herald Long-Awaited Blows

LONDON, Feb. 26.—(AP)—British bombers, in "strong force," have made their third daylight attack on the war in Germany, it was announced today by U.S. army headquarters.

The precise target was not announced immediately, but it was believed that the planes were over northwest Germany, and it was presumed they were continuing the attack on U-boat bases which the Royal Air Force has been hammering by night.

The first all-American raid on Germany occurred Jan. 27, when bombers from the United States Army Air Corps, in three large planes, were shot down by the enemy.

Urges Guarantee
The use of the words "strong force" indicated the American bomber command may be about ready to start the heavy daylight aerial assault on Germany which has been anticipated for several months.

While the "Jervis Bay" fought, Hexachlorethane • Wants to work

Remember the "Jervis Bay"—and Captain Fogarty-Fogarty—the ship that was the first of the Australian tankers to be sunk by the Germans. The ship was the first of the Australian tankers to be sunk by the Germans.

The "Jervis Bay" action lasted but ten minutes, but that was time enough to permit almost all of the thirty-eight ships of the convoy to escape to safety. It foiled the German in his "kill" of those hapless ships.

HEXACHLORETHANE
A chemical mixture, one of the ingredients of which is hexachlorethane—a five-syllable word for a product that is made from Chlorine. Chlorine, you know, is extensively used to purify drinking water—both here in our Canadian cities, and by troops in the field. C.H.L. manufactures Chlorine in three large plants.

HEXACHLORETHANE
Chlorine itself derives from another, and much more familiar chemical product—Salt. So the Hexachlorethane which rendered valuable service in the "Jervis Bay" engagement comes from our old friend, Salt. And Salt, of course, is one of the many other products made from it, is essential to the production of vital war materials in metal refineries, textile plants, chemical works. Tons of salt are used to preserve food.

Turgeon Cites Need Guarantee Against "Want" For Veterans, Dependents Is Demanded Of Dominion

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Immediate declaration that those now serving overseas and their dependents will never have to suffer want by reason of government neglect was urged in the House of Commons last night by Clarence Gillie (C.C.F., Cape Breton South), and endorsed by J. G. Turgeon (Lab., Carleton).

They were among the many speakers in the debate on Health Minister Mackenzie's resolution setting up a 35-man special committee on reconstruction and re-establishment to carry on the work started by a similar committee last year.

The debate occupied the entire evening and was not ended at adjournment hour.

Mr. Gillie said men and women now serving overseas should be assured that they would be kept on full pay and allowances when they returned until gainful employment was available for them.

Mr. Turgeon, chairman of last year's committee, generally supported the principle of Mr. Gillie's suggestion.

DUTY OF HOUSE
"It is not of those now in the service that it is our duty to let them know that we, the members of the House of Commons, intend by every possible means to see that what takes place after this war will not be in line with what was permitted to take place after the last one."

Obstacles to full employment after the First Great War were not real obstacles and a real partner-ship of workers and employers could ensure employment.

"There is not any question that during the terrible and long years after the war, known as the depression, we let ourselves sink to depths of shame which only the courage and the heroism of the men and women who are fighting for us overseas can wipe out," said Mr. Turgeon.

He said every member of the committee last year was "in deadly earnest" about the work they were undertaking and he forecast that the same would be true of the committee this year.

He said it was desirable that the reconstruction of the province should be directed in co-operation with the provinces.

INTERNATIONAL SCOPE
Two great economic structures would have to be considered, that which involves international relations and exchanges, and that which concerned the people of Canada alone.

Meanwhile the great concern of Canada was to make certain that no possible effort for victory in the war is overlooked lest the work of reconstruction falls to the lot of the Axis powers with Canada having no say in the matter.

For that reason the committee should take steps to let the men and women overseas know what those at home are trying to do to make their future and the future of their dependents more secure than they ever were before.

Mr. Turgeon spoke of the great developments in the northwest area of Canada in highway construction and air development. Few realized, he said, that the air distance from Chicago to Montreal to Shanghai by the Alaska route was 2,800 miles shorter than the Pacific route from San Francisco to Honolulu.

HOPES FOR ATTACK
He foresaw a great flood of traffic between Canada and the United States and the Oriental nations by the Alaska route, and expressed the hope that meanwhile he could see it used for an attack upon Tokyo.

Mr. Turgeon urged that the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act should have its scope extended to cover all Canada instead of being restricted to the three prairie provinces.

Labor in its organized form can be accepted as part of industry. Social security as relating to industrial workers should be cared for by industry itself in the future.

The member for Carleton said that if industry could be built up, and agriculture were recognized as the foundation, Canada could look forward to the post-war period without fear.

The first speaker in the debate, speaking late in the day sitting, was Angus Macdonald (C.C.F., Vancouver East), who said the government must arrange for a planned economy after the war or face turmoil.

The motion to set up the committee would authorize it to study special questions likely to be encountered after the war.

VICTORY NOT ENOUGH
Mr. Macdonald said a military victory in the war would not be enough, and that "forward-looking people" believed a return to post-war conditions was impossible.

There had been military victory in 1918, followed by "ruthless exploitation and wild speculation."

Men and women in the forces, in factories, on the farms and in fishing industry expected a "new deal" when the war was over.

The servants of privilege already were planning in secret, and there had to be recognition of the opposition of private enterprise and corporate enterprise might be encountered in the development of effective post-war planning, he said.

Victor Quinlan (N.D. Acadia) who spoke after the dinner recess, said that after the war the interest on debt should be the first charge on the nation even when reconstruction was desired. Canada should decide on its post-war objectives and the ways of removing obstacles to their achievement.

Farm Estimates Down $24,243,690

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—(CP)—The agriculture estimates tabled yesterday by Finance Minister Tully for the coming fiscal year totalled $17,407,236, a decrease of $24,243,690 compared with last year, but supplementary estimates probably will wipe out much of this decrease.

The estimate for wheat acreage reduction payments is $12,583,000, $2,910,000 less than in the present year. Legislation is passed each session to authorize these payments and until the present session passes the legislation, no estimates can be passed to cover next summer's payments. The only payments covered in the present estimate are left over from last summer.

Payments for next summer will be provided for in supplementary estimates later in the session.

Growth of Canada's Diplomatic Service Seen in Estimates

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Growth of Canada's diplomatic service is reflected in the estimates for the Department of External Affairs for the coming year.

The cost of representation abroad is placed at $88,900, up $21,023 from last year.

The expenses at such new posts as the great mission at Tientsin, China, and the governments of the Department of External Affairs are functioning from London help to account for the increase.

Canada to Spend at Rate Per Month as Great as Rate Per Year Previously

By R. T. RICHARDSON
Edmonton Bulletin Staff Writer
OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—The 1943 budget coming down next Tuesday will provide expenditures by the Canadian Government at a rate per month as great as the rate per year was a few years ago. In 1935, for instance, the budget was $479,000,000, and this year it will be $550,000,000.

For the average Canadian family of four persons, the cost of the war this year will average about $35 a week, to which must be added about $3.50 per week for non-war federal costs. In actual taxation, the government hopes to collect 45 per cent of this amount, leaving the rest in loans.

MIDWINTER IN TUNISIA!

World-famous war correspondents, on the scene of battle with the British First Army, have sent this dispatch to General Motors of Canada from "Somewhere in Tunisia".

by PHILIP JORDAN

With the British First Army on the Tunisian front—I am writing these words amid the muck and mire of Tunisia and I can hear the sounds of battle on a range of hills down a valley to the east. But neither I, nor our guns, nor our men, could be here at all were it not for the great work that has been done in the factories of North America. This campaign, more than any other I have seen in this war, depends on motor transport for its success. The enemy knows this. Daily they try to search our roads with their fighters, shooting up isolated vehicles as well as convoys. Nothing is too small for their attention. We are living in a world without railroads here, a world of twisting mountain roads that rise thousands of feet into the clouds. By day and night—the latter without lights of any kind—the allied forces move forward along these roads in trucks that you supply. Without them we would be immobile, still far back, some 500 miles, in the neighborhood of Algiers. As it is, our goals are in sight and from here I can see a bare mountain that rises just this side of Tunis.

One of the many splendid things about this allied campaign is the way in which our transport has withstood some of the most difficult conditions I have ever known. "Lame ducks" are rare, and this tribute is not only to those who are responsible for the maintenance of our vehicles but above all to those who built the trucks in which we move. Last month, I drove a daily average of well over 100 miles in a Chevrolet. Without it, I would have found it impossible to report the war for something like two million readers daily.

Veterans of many fronts say they have never seen such weather anywhere. Every field and all the side roads, after days and days of rain, are as bad as any Irish bog. A big armored tank sank to the top of its turret in the muck the other day even after a solid week of comparatively dry weather. A crust forms over the ground, but it is thin and without lights of any kind—the latter break through. A few hours of sunshine are followed by walls of rain driven down by gales from the steep mountain sides.

This is a spot where your General Motors Trucks are getting their severest test of the war. Trucks and more trucks are needed. We hope you're busy making them.

A remarkable close-up picture by an A.S.I. official photographer who directed his camera from a shallow sand hole at the end of his knee meant seeing Axis aircraft. At right, without lights, the British tanks are up in flames. In these tanks, there is the fire of burning shells.

This lucky band of men travelled for three days and nights, through enemy territory at times, to get back to the British lines after being close to capture.

Philip Jordan's direct cable is another confirmation of the statement that Canadian-built General Motors war products are serving in every theatre of war. Letters from many fronts, reaching workers in GM plants, further convince them that their jobs are vital to victory wherever a tough transport problem must be solved to support and supply our fighting forces.

VICTORY IS OUR BUSINESS

War Services Of University Are Discussed

The resolution resolved that the relative emphasis on technical, non-technical and military training in this country should not adequately meet the responsibilities of the universities in wartime. The resolution was adopted at an open forum held by the University of Alberta debating society.

The affirmative, spoken by Bruce Wilson and Bob Sharpe suggested that the present military training system be changed so that there be one-hour lectures, one week to be taken by everyone, and that these lectures cover military law, map reading, etc. that this course be an attendance course.

NEW CAMP PERIOD

It was suggested that the camp period be changed from the present two-week period in the beginning of May to a three-week period held in the fall, and that the students be paid four dollars a day to compensate money lost that they could have earned working in a war industry.

It was urged by the affirmative that it is the government's duty to clarify the status of the universities in wartime. The responsibilities of the universities are:

24.—To provide a steady flow of trained men as potential officers.

25.—To turn out men and women who will handle portions of the post-war work.

The negative, taken by Gene Larkin and Don Combs, suggested that the present army set-up is doing a good job, and that if more emphasis were placed on military training the functions of the University in wartime would not be fulfilled.

In the discussion that took place after the debate, the general opinion was that the university had not fulfilled all its obligations because of the facts outlined by the affirmative.

Independent Party Policy Is Defended

J. Percy Page, Independent Edmonton, speaking in Throne Speech debate in the Legislature Thursday night, reported charges that the Independent party came into being as the result of money bribes, or that the party was a "something-for-nothing" party.

Discussing his party's policy, Mr. Page said they could not accept the Social Credit government's "something-for-nothing" policy, nor the unyielding policies of socialism.

Mr. Page said the party was not dissatisfied with the results of the election, but that the results of the election were a disappointment.

"Yee, Doc, an engine is something like a human heart!"

Queen of the Flat-Tops

By Stanley Johnston

In his 200-mile pursuit of a Jap bomber after the attack on the Lexington on Feb. 20, was hit by anti-aircraft fired in his bombing drive and his plane went into the water.

We were able to give Dixon better news about Quigley because the engine had been in touch with the ship by a radio which he had been attacked by a Zero which scored a lucky hit on his left engine.

It was for this reason that the carrier but, after getting as far as Russell Island, he and his gunner, Linka, these two who already had accounted for three Zeros in this battle, had flown about half of the homeward trek, when he spotted a Jap seaplane fighter. It was several miles off their course and interfering with no one. But Linka turned around and it rapidly overhauled it. The result was a short but violent air duel that ended when the Japanese plane crashed into the sea. It gave Linka and Linka a day's total of four.

Our pilots were home in time for lunch, which turned out a celebration. There was a good deal of excitement, especially during the present trying period.

Speaking again of the government, Mr. Page said, "in my day, we were taught 'sea, and ye shall find it.' The result of this has come out with a revised version, 'where you are, and ye shall find it.'"

In opening his address, he paid tribute to the memory of John J. McFarland, at one time chairman of the Canadian Wheat Board, and later chairman of the United movement.

Stock Agencies Approve Report On Operations

Canadian Livestock Sales Agencies approved Thursday of the report of Walter C. Thompson, A.C.S. of Toronto, in which Mr. Thompson said that he was operating in close co-operation with the department of agriculture in the vital need of orderly marketing and sales of livestock.

The meetings, which concluded Thursday night, have been held at the National hotel. More than 20 delegates were in attendance.

IMPROVE MARKETS
Mr. Thompson, continuing, said that government and self-interest had been handed to the Canadian Livestock Sales Agencies, Ltd., which had gone on record as being bonded and financially sound.

The meeting went on record as being against any grading of livestock, in view of the fact that the experience of the farmers in rail grading of hogs has not been satisfactory to them.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—With Indiana substituting for Florida this season as the centre of major league baseball training, America is certain to become quite Hoosier-conscious before April 21, when the big league pennant campaigns open.

CANADIAN SPORTSHOTS

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Major Jack Adams of Detroit Red Wings says Glen Harmon has been the leading par in Montreal Canadiens' National Hockey League revival. Discussing Canadiens' rise from near oblivion to contention for the playoff berth, Adams told Bill "They're the team to beat." And asked if any individual had played a leading part in the Canadiens' rise, Jack said: "You can say that again. That Joe Harmon has put plenty of life into them."

Study of the records bears out Adams' comments. When Harmon made the jump from the amateur Canadiens in the Quebec league to the NHL, he was in last place in the NHL, with only six wins in 24 games. Since then, they have lost only five games in winning 10 and tying three.

Some prominent former NHL players were passed over, including Jim Henry, Ken Heaton, Ben Smith, Mac Colville, Al Shillsky, Terry Redmond, Jerry Heffernan and Jack Church.

WITH THE R.C.A.F. SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Canadian sport names are popping up all over England, wherever the R.C.A.F. men serve, now that the hockey season is well advanced. LAC R. H. Pope, of Timmins, has a radio message being played with Hollinger Juniors in the O.H.A. in 1937, is playing with a night fighter squadron and in the snow forward line with him LAC. Howard J. Homan, who played junior, intermediate and senior for his hometown of Killam, Alberta.

A defenceman of one team is Shinkby, of Winnipeg, in relation to the fast-twitching Alex of New York Ranger fame. R.C. J. M. Macle, Port of Weyburn, Sask., who played baseball for Weyburn Beavers when they won the Saskatchewan title in 1938, is now where they don't play much hockey or baseball either for that matter—in North Africa. As a fighter pilot Porter scored the Albatross front in 1-2-3 plays destroyed.

170, Hugh Blair, of Edmonton, refuses to forget the days when he used to ski in the timberline area of the Rockies about Jasper. He carries a flock of pictures of the Jasper ski country with him and when he isn't flying his high-speed Mustang the chances are he's yearning for the slopes.

Kisses Home Soil on Arrival

Barney Ross Arrives Back In U.S. From Guadalcanal

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Aided by a native-made cane adorned with real Japanese teeth, boxing "man of the year," Cpl. Barney Ross knelt on American soil and kissed the ground yesterday as he came home from fighting on Guadalcanal.

Ross, commended for standing guard over wounded marine comrades at a Guadalcanal outpost last Nov. 15, was the first to leave the big tropical island.

Ross knelt to kiss the ground. He said: "This I vowed to do if ever I saw American soil again—sometimes out there we're not so sure we shall."

The 32-year-old Chicago corporal watched his buddies' arrival, being carried from the ship, and remarked:

"The night I spent in that shell hole with five wounded lads, I was the toughest fella I ever hugged. I thought the hell would never sound."

It was this "round" that brought Ross commendation from his company commander, Capt. O. K. L. Blane, and recommendation for the Navy Cross or the Army Distinguished Service Cross. He was credited with saving 12 Japanese.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—(AP)—The telephone call that Mr. Sarah Ross had been waiting for came through Thursday.

It was from her son, Barney Ross, world's lightweight and welterweight champion who arrived safely at San Diego, Calif., after fighting with the marines at Guadalcanal.

Cpl. Ross has the distinction of killing 22 Japs while protecting three wounded marines. Ross, stricken with malaria, did not indicate when he expected to return to Chicago.

Girls' Basketball

The two games of the City Girls' Basketball League scheduled for tonight at the Y.W.C.A. have been postponed. Instead there will be one game, the Y.W.C.A. will play a team of nurses from St. Stephen's starting at 7:30.

The two games, Bristol against the C.W.A.C. and Stables and the Y.W.C.A. will be played next week.

LAC. Lode Wabing of Regina, formerly with New York Rangers and Philadelphia Flyers, scored the lone late for the home.

The Bombers previously won the northern England R.C.A.F. title while the Flyers took the southern England crown.

Robinson Gets

Second Chance at La Motta Tonight

DETROIT, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Ray "Sugar" Robinson, an increased welterweight, and Jacob La Motta, unranked middleweight, collide tonight in a third-round showdown match that has around the Detroit fight public into putting more money on the line than Joe Louis drew for his last hometown underweight title defense.

With a sellout of Olympia Stadium expected, maulmaker Nork Louie estimated an $8000 gate for the third meeting of the two New Yorkers. Robinson, one of the game's most talented workmen, and La Motta, who ended Sugar Ray's 129-fight winning streak three weeks ago. The Louie-Abe fight last year drew over $50,000.

Robinson, as Pat Walker Smith reports for duty in his very next week.

In a 16 chance last time, Robinson may enter the ring at no better than even money.

Robinson outpointed La Motta in New York last October but he ran out of gas in the return bout here and couldn't hang on after Jacob put him on the canvas for a nine round knockout.

Behind the great attraction, Robinson, a former Detroit newsboy, has the punch and fire of a champion. And $10 tops for seats evidently is not a great hardship on well-beaten war workers.

The two fighters tapered off yesterday with light workouts.

The intention is to have the pheasants hatch by autumn and after the young pheasants are big enough to feed for themselves, to turn them loose at various places throughout the district. There have been several previous attempts to stock the country with these pheasants, but they either were shot by hunters or were unable to climber themselves.

French Problem Claimed Caused By Politicians

Unscrupulous politicians, thinking more of party politics than of Canada, are responsible for the French-Canadian problems, which confronts the Dominion today, Fred Anderson, Social Credit Party, Calgary, told the legislature Thursday afternoon.

"Let all hope," Mr. Anderson said, "that some day a true leader will arrive in Canada who will, by the use of the cool waters of reason, douse the embers of racial hatred, never to burst into flame again."

Canada today, he asserted, was not a true nation, but a house to some extent divided amongst itself.

Referring to the French-Canadian, of whom, he said, there were no better workers or more kindly companions, Mr. Anderson said they were not called "Canadians," but "French-Canadians."

BECOME CANADIANS

"These people," he continued, "if left in peace by the politicians, would in a short time become Canadians."

"But in the past the smouldering embers of racial hatred have been constantly blown into flame by utterly unscrupulous politicians, who thought more of politics than of Canada."

One of the most thought-provoking questions for Canada after the war is immigration, Mr. Anderson told the house. The true aim of immigration, he said, was not the increasing of the population, but the creation of a nation.

"And let us remember," he added, "that to have a nation we must have unity."

In considering immigration we should welcome the suffering people of other lands, but let us not segregate them in special groups—let us absorb them into our nation, the Calgary member suggested. We should give no special and undue privileges to any group, as we did to the Hutterites and Doukhobors.

"Let all who enter Canada understand that they do so as future Canadians, with the same freedoms but also the same duties to their country as their fellow citizens," Mr. Anderson said.

CRITICIZES BUDGET

In reference to the program of government in the Dominion, Mr. Anderson criticized the present method, by which budgets are controlled in the nation's seats of government. Estimates, he claimed, are given under the present system, are only guess work, and are not representatives of the people are asked to compare one guess with another, which, in his opinion, is wrong.

Mr. Anderson said he felt control of the people's funds, by the people's representatives, is most essential, and that the representatives do not have that control. He said this criticism applies to every government in Canada.

KNOW YOUR VITAMINS!

VITAMIN D is known as the anti-rachitic vitamin because a normal supply is necessary in order to prevent rickets. A D deficiency, however, may lead to several other disorders. This vitamin is essential to the normal bone growth and tooth development, it favors good body form, and it regulates the metabolism of lime and phosphorus. A mild deficiency of D may produce "bow legs" in children, and a predisposition to tooth decay. Any serious deficiency may bring on softened bones, spinal curvatures, retarded growth, enlarged joints, and rickets and other bone disorders.

Vitamin D is formed in human and animal bodies when the skin is exposed to the direct rays of the sun, due to the action of ultra-violet light on ergosterol which is found in the skin. This explains why D has been called the "sunshine vitamin," and shows just how important it is to get into the sun, and this applies especially to growing children. Where the weather is such that little or no sunshine is available, there are other means of getting your quota of D. I find that the good sources include, cod liver, fish, herring, tuna, and crab. Excellent sources are: Cod liver oil, egg yolk, herring, halibut, and liver, all various irradiated foods, sardines, and milk, in which the vitamin has been added. When purchasing milk, look for the "D" on the package.

Readers who have been following this column now have a knowledge of vitamins A, B1, C and D. Tomorrow I will tell you about vitamin G which is also known as B2. It is a good idea to save these articles for future reference, but every reader should have one of my complete "VITAMIN CHARTS" which shows the vitamin and mineral salt content of almost all known foods.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Children Gain Fills

Love Living by Selves

Broader Domestic Viewpoint Between Parents and Children, Lessens Strife and Continual Bitterness in All Homes

One of our most cherished traditions is that parents be to children as God is to His people. Children love living by themselves. They are happy and congenial when together and when they are separated. No doubt there is natural affection in most families, but it is by no means universal. There are plenty of fathers, mothers and children who are just naturally antagonistic to each other. Some times they are too much alike and some times they are too much unlike, or thought, or taste in common.

Know a father and daughter who cannot get along together because of it? It is just a feminine counterpart of the male. Both can stand her. Both of them are high-minded and sensitive. Both are bitterly prejudiced. Both are inflexible in their opinions. Both are lacking in tact and diplomacy.

DISPOSITIONS REPELLENT

As a result when the girl, who represents the generation, comes into contact with her father, who belongs to another generation, it is for simple facts, and the two by-layers seek places of security. Both this man and girl are right, but they can't get along together because they are too much alike in character. And I know a mother and daughter who get on each other's nerves when they are far enough away from each other to get into a grocery store. The mother is a woman of the olden days who has a swan, and the daughter is a woman of the new day who has a swan. The mother is so scared about, and why she nags her so about doing the things Nature created her to do, and which she is perfectly safe in doing.

CHILDREN REBEL

Father cannot understand why John wants to risk his life being an aviator. He would have a nice safe job with him, a nice salary. He calls John a young fool and says there is mighty little reward for a man to work himself to death building up a future for his children when they refuse to take it.

What To Do

And Mother, who was a beauty in her day, looked forward to relieving her social triumphs in her day. They are almost the same, a social disgrace that Mary has grown up into being a plain girl, with no attraction for men, who

$155,996,129 Increase Estimates of $610,880,494 For Non-War Expenditures Are Presented to Commons

By C. R. BLACKBURN

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Finance Minister Lloyd presented to the House of Commons yesterday estimates for non-war expenditures of $610,880,494 during the fiscal year beginning next April 1.

This comes in the wake of an original estimate of $548,880,365 contained in the main non-war estimates for the current fiscal year, an increase of $155,996,129 between the two original estimates.

Supplementary estimates for this year however, have already increased this year's appropriations to $560,480,000, leaving the supplementary estimates for the current fiscal year at approximately $137,000,000.

To EXCEED $550,000,000

Yesterday's estimates indicate that the total civil and non-war expenditures for the next fiscal year will be in excess of $550,000,000.

This will include the non-war estimates as tabled yesterday, a war appropriation bill for $3,800,000,000, and a mutual aid bill providing for contributions to the United Nations of war materials to the value of $100,000,000.

Presumably there will be further supplementary estimates brought down by the House of Commons, which will further increase this year's total expenditures.

It is pointed out that the supplementary estimates are being presented at a time when the present session is over.

A statement accompanying the estimates said that the government is making a large reduction in the present year's expenditures, and that the government is making a large reduction in the present year's expenditures.
